

EARLY RESPONSE TEAM TRAINING

Saturday, April 24, 2010

8:30am - 4:00pm

Champaign First UMC

(210 W Church St, Champaign IL)

Do you want to be a caring Christian presence in the early days after a natural disaster?
Then Early Response Team Training is where you start.

An Early Response Team (ERT) is neither a first response group of emergency workers nor a rebuild and repair team. Rather, it fills a specific need in the early days after the disaster. Today, local and state Emergency Management require volunteers to be properly trained and credentialed through recognized relief organizations. Upon completion of the ERT training and application process, you will receive an official badge and t-shirt of the Conference Disaster Response Team.

The cost is $30, which includes lunch, training manual, badge, and t-shirt. Registration deadline is noon on Friday, April 9, 2010. Pastor Sharon and Ron Monroe, authorized UMCOR trainers say, "Even if you do not wish to be a member of a traveling team, the training will prepare you for responding in your own community in the early days after a disaster. We need to be proactive, preparing ourselves for a disaster. We hope many clergy and laity will take advantage of this training."
